Building Permit Reinstatement Application

Policy: PL1-74-002Z Building Permit Expiration Policy: An issued building permit, which has expired, may be reinstated if the duration from the date of the last applicable inspection or approved documented activity has not exceed 12 months for a residential permit or 18 months for a commercial permit and/or no changes have been made in the original plans and specifications for such work. The fee for reinstatement is one-half the original building permit fee, per the current adopted Unified Fee Schedule (see UFS #8421).

Note: Per UFS 2843 all permits and applications are subject to a 3% Technology fee. The 3% fee is calculated on the permit/application fees due.
