

Landlords!

There's help
for you, too.

These services are available to ALL
Whatcom County residents:

The COVID-19 pandemic has been difficult for both landlords and tenants.

As we look towards recovery, we can help landlords recover their losses without creating additional hardship for tenants.

With the eviction moratorium ending soon, funding and mediation services are available to both you and your tenants.

We're here to help!

Opportunity Council provides limited financial assistance for rent and utilities. Appointments become available the first business day of each month. Landlords or tenants can apply online at <http://www.oppco.org/whatcomrentalassistance> or leave a voicemail at 360-746-3826.

Whatcom Dispute Resolution Center (WDRC) provides impartial case management and mediation for tenants and landlords. Services promote dialogue and resolution of rent payment plans and other necessary agreements. The WDRC additionally facilitates access to existing rent assistance funds and human services as needed. Services are free and available in multiple languages. Learn more at www.whatcomdrc.org, or by calling 360-676-0122.

Whatcom County
HEALTH Department

opportunity council

These services are available to ALL Whatcom County residents.

Opportunity Council provides limited financial assistance for rent and utilities. Appointments become available the first business day of each month. Landlords or tenants can apply online at www.opppo.org/basic-needs/housing/help-withrent or leave a voicemail at 360-746-3826.

Whatcom Dispute Resolution Center (WDRC) provides impartial case management and mediation for tenants and landlords. Services promote dialogue and resolution of rent payment plans and other necessary agreements to maintain housing and prevent evictions. The WDRC additionally facilitates access to existing rent assistance funds, legal assistance, and human services as needed. Services are free and available in multiple languages. Learn more at www.whatcomdrc.org, or by calling 360-676-0122.