Options to participate in Community Flood meeting Nov. 24

WHATCOM COUNTY, WA – Whatcom County experienced widespread damage to homes and businesses in last week's devastating floods. As the difficult work of cleaning and rebuilding continues, many have questions that they would like addressed. The Whatcom County Sheriff's Office Division of Emergency Management will host a Community Meeting at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 24 for officials to address the community and for community members to ask questions and share concerns.

If you have a question that you would like addressed at the Community Meeting, please use this form and the Whatcom County Sheriff's Office Division of Emergency Management will consolidate questions and work to ensure they are addressed during the meeting.

Due to the complexities of managing both an in-person and virtual meeting, we ask that you use this form to submit your questions rather than try to ask them during the meeting. Please submit your forms by 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 24, 2021.

The Community Meeting will take place at 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 24, 2021, at Nooksack Valley High School, located at 3326 E. Badger Road, Everson, Washington.

All are welcome to attend - either in person or virtually in the following ways:

- Listen live on the radio – KGMI-AM 790
- Whatcom County YouTube \(English\)
- Whatcom County YouTube \(Spanish\)
- Whatcom County Sheriff's office Facebook
