I had a couple of questions that I thought might be helpful in better understanding those incarcerated.

1. Can you read and answer this survey without help?
2. If you were prescribed a medication would you be able to commit to taking it regularly as prescribed?
3. Are you happy the way that you are or do you have the desire to change?
4. Do you believe that society or government is responsible to see that your needs are taken care of?
