

Proclamation

WHEREAS, A beloved member of our community was lost this past month; and

WHEREAS, his voice has been the soundtrack of countless high school athletic memories over the past 30 years of his broadcasting career; and

WHEREAS, this life-long Whatcom County resident and Bellingham High School alum always made his alma mater proud and Whatcom County well represented by his professionalism and by displaying his great talent on a daily basis on local radio stations KPUG and KGMI, by keeping us all informed about all things sports in Whatcom County; and

WHEREAS, he has been the highly recognizable voice of high school athletics in Whatcom County for the past three decades; and

WHEREAS, this man always held his community in the highest regard and was passionately committed to making life-long memories for thousands of athletes, parents and grandparents alike through the air waves of radio; and

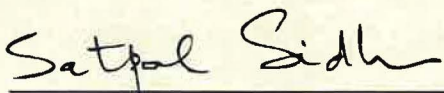

WHEREAS, Whatcom County is committed to recognizing those who have been instrumental in weaving the fundamental fabric of our culture and history,

NOW, THEREFORE, do I, Satpal Singh Sidhu, Whatcom County Executive, hereby proclaim September 2023 to be:

Mark Scholten Month

Throughout Whatcom County in honor his work, dedication and commitment to a lifetime of broadcasting high school sports in Whatcom County for the last 30 years.

Signed this 1st day of September, 2023

Satpal Singh Sidhu, County Executive

